There are point of origin mileage restrictions for USDA, NRCS and Conservation District programs. There are also Kansas and Federal Seed Laws which include germination testing. Ask NRCS or the Conservation District for details before purchasing seed from any source, especially native.

This information is provided as a public service and constitutes no endorsements nor assurance of the ability of the individual to do the work by the USDA, NRCS or the Conservation District nor any service, supply, or equipment involved. While an effort has been made to provide an accurate listing, omissions or other errors may occur and therefore, other available sources of information should be consulted. Retailers should be asked if they are licensed to sell seed in Kansas.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, religion, age, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, and marital or family status. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TDD).

To file a complaint of discrimination, write USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, Room 326W, Whitten Building, 14th and Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9410, or call (202) 720-5964 (voice or TDD). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.
